Coles will open super mart.

The supermarket proposed for the vacant north-west corner of Queen and Pier Streets, Altona, will now be opened by G. J. Coles and Company Ltd., late this year.

Originally, Woolworths planned to use the sit.

The supermarket is being developed for Coles by Hanover Holdings Ltd.

Altona Council recently gave Hanover Holdings the "green light" to go ahead with the proposal by approving a revised site layout plan by the developers.

Coles has more than 160 supermarkets trading throughout Australia and is currently involved in a vigorous expansion programme for supermarkets.

Coles' chairman and managing director, Mr. Norman C. Coles, said the new supermarket would be a large, one-storey structure, with a total building area of 22,000 sq. ft.

He said: "It will be a modern supermarket, with a complete range of all groceries, frozen foods, Australian and continental delicatessen and dairy produce."

"Fresh meat and fruit and vegetables will be prepared and packed on the premises by a special staff under the most hygienic conditions."

The building will be air-conditioned and will have automatic opening doors. Free off-street parking will be provided for 50 cars.

The advent of the supermarket will mean employment opportunities for local people.

It has a 100ft. frontage on to The Esplanade.

Farnbach Burnham auctioned the home for the National Trustees Company.

It belonged to the estate of C. M. McIntyre.

MMBW FINANCE GOING BEGGING — CR. WEAVER

Ratepayers in Altona are not taking advantage of Board of Works finance available to householders who wish to have their properties sewered.

Stating this last week, Altona's Board of Works Commissioner, Cr. Harry Weaver, said: "After checking out the listings for the past month, I noted that only one Altona ratepayer had applied for finance."

Cr. Weaver was reporting to Altona council.

He said that board's finance was available on application, and repayable over a term of 10 years by quarterly repayments, bearing eight per cent. interest on the reducing balance.

"The board is able to assist people in necessary circumstances and who are otherwise not able to finance house connection", said Cr. Weaver.

"Application forms are available at the Civic Offices and I will be pleased to assist any person who contacts me on this matter".

Asked by the Mayor, Cr. Pat Lynch, if ratepayers were generally aware that the board funds were available, Cr. Weaver replied: "I have put out circulars but perhaps they have not been read too closely".

After several years of disuse, the old Red Robin factory at the north end of Pier Street has taken on a new look. It's been given a coat of white paint by the members of the Lapland Society, who have bought the former factory to use for meetings.

That house which sold for over $42,000 on the Esplanade has certainly given us all something to tell those who "knock" Altona and the western suburbs.

The war against pollution in Altona has now been joined by students of Altona North Technical School, who have been taking tests of the water in Kororoit Creek. Cannot see what this proves though, because it is a known fact that drainage from about 3000 properties in Sunshine already flows into the creek. So what enters the creek at Altona only adds to the pollution.

Old, frail and nowhere to go

Following the seminar, Adult Care in Our Community a committee has been set up to investigate the services available to elderly people in the district.

The seminar, held in the Altona Methodist Hall and organised by the Altona Methodist Ladies' Guild, was chaired by Cr. W. L. J. Crofts.

Speakers included Dr. John Leyden, medical officer for Altona city, Miss Rosemary D'Argaville, social worker, Mr. Neville Brooke, associate director of the Brotherhood of St. Laurence, Mr. Jim Peddlestone, director of the Victorian Council for the Ageing.

Dr. Leyden said as medicine was becoming more scientific and complex, the public came to expect more from it.

He pointed out that diagnosing the cause of diseases embodied environmental problems. Anxiety was often the cause of illness as distinct from biological problems.

to be helped in their own homes.

"Old people need to be individuals, in their own community," he added.

"The greatest need is in the field of nursing care."

"Nobody wants old people, not even hospitals."

"Thirty per cent. of beds in nursing homes are tied up by people who should not be there."

"This is bad for them as it causes increased degeneration."

Mr. Peddlestone said that 10 per cent. of people are of pensionable age. (In Altona this means over 2000 people).

He emphasised the importance of domiciliary care and suggested that meals-on-wheels should be given seven days a week instead of five.

Mr. Peddlestone also stressed the need for paying a friendly visit to lonely pensioners.

The committee set up to inquire into the needs of the elderly comprise Mrs. Q. Cox, Mrs. E. Mitchell, Mrs. E. Watson, Mrs. E. Bertram, Dr. J. Leyden, Mr. E. Bertram, Mr. L. Noordenne, Mr. R. Stringer, Mr. D. Graham, Father D. Cahill, Cr. W. Sommers and Cr. W. L. J. Crofts.

West's needs

Dr. Leyden said there was a need for nursing homes and more social workers in the West.

"Existing institutions touched only a small percentage of those in need," Dr. Leyden added.

He recommended establishing a committee and establishing the facts about adult care.

Miss D'Argaville spoke of her findings as a research worker in North Melbourne, Kensington, and Flemington.

She said many available services were fragmentary and there was a need for co-ordination.

"It's necessary to establish what percentage of people need domiciliary services and what percentage needed full institutionalised care," she said.

Mr. Neville Brooke said over the past 20 years the emphasis was on custodial care and Government subsidy helped to build these institutions.

"Perhaps this residential care has been over-emphasised. Old people needed

CAIRNS

A committee seeking the re-election of Dr. J. F. Cairns to Canberra has been formed in the Loral area by local A.L.P. members.

As part of the strategy for the Federal election later this year, the committee has a $2000 budget to meet and initial donations of $150 with further fund-raising activities planned are bringing the target closer.

The organising secretary, Mrs. J. McManus, of Laverton, said Dr. Cairns would be Minister for Manufacturers in a Federal Labor Government.

She said Dr. Cairns' responsibilities would include bringing about full employment in the manufacturing industry and protection of it from unfair overseas competition.

"Community support is now vital to ensure this gifted man is given the opportunity to overcome past errors made by the Government and allow all Australians, old and new, to have an increased share of Australia's quality of life."

THE NATURAL THING

ITS ABOUT TIME WE CLEANED UP KOROROIT CREEK

By Bill Ross

If a private citizen dumps his rubbish in the street, he is prosecuted by law.

This being a fact of life, it seems curious that a company committing a similar act is often not held responsible.

And in regard to a prosecution it occupies an almost invulnerable position.

Unfortunately these two sets of rules are at work in our own municipality, for it seems that local chemical companies can blatantly pollute Kororoit Creek and get away with it.

A mysterious pipe that has no source, but certainly an end, apparently pours waste effluent into the creek at will.

Noticing this disgusting phenomenon, students from Altona North Technical School have (under teacher guidance) taken samples of the water.

The hope to analyse the water with what can be described as only basic equipment.

And they are hopeful that their findings may result in positive action.

Over the same period of time the revered CSIRO has also obtained water samples from the creek but surprisingly has refused to make public its findings.

While certain obvious reasons come to mind, it does seem that this is carrying the growing Australian trend of keeping secrets, a little too far.

'NOTHING'

Equally blunt and extremely objective, the Board of Works has informed the public: "Nothing can be done."

Naturally the polluters themselves are above giving replies to a questioning public.

So many many people are becoming sick and tired of these multinational giants and their buck passing managements.

The telephone extensions in these monoliths seem to be infinite and only rarely does Mr. X materialise into Mr. Responsible.

Only when they are subjected to a sensible scientific campaign that results in prosecutions and fines, will these firms be stopped.

The campaign itself should present no real difficulty, as devices to measure water pollution involve far less cost to the community than those which measure air pollution.

The time to start this campaign is NOW.

For too long school-children have been the social conscience of our town on this matter.

Since no other civic instrumentalities are interested in immersing themselves in this problem, would it be too much to ask the council to clean this mess up?

Don is new deputy

Mr. Donald Wood, 26 has been appointed Deputy Town Clerk of the City of Altona.

Donald is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Wood, of Giffard Street, Williamstown.

After matriculating at Williamstown High School, he worked as a clerk with Williamstown Council.

He later became an accountant on the staff of Keilor Council.

Until his recent appointment, he was Deputy Shire Secretary of Hastings.

MORE MONEY FOR ALTONA SEWERAGE

Altona has been allocated further extensions under the sewerage works programme for 1972-73. Estimated cost will be $450,000.

Reporting to last week's council meeting, Altona's Board of Works Commissioner, Cr. Harry Weaver, said: "The area of these works is bounded by Railway Street South, Webb Street, Esplanade and Grieve Parade, and will be known as Sewerage Area No. 1894.

"It contains 206 houses, nine vacant lots, and the Altona Primary School No. 3923, which was built in 1922.

"This information was contained in a report by the Engineer in chief of the Board of Works, Mr. A. Robinson, which showed that it is proposed to expend $6,829,000 for sewerage mains and reticulation in the 1972/73 programme.

"The works will provide sewerage for another 3053 houses and 731 vacant lots. The area of extension in Altona will provide sewerage for some people who have been waiting for this service for up to 40 years.

"The report of the engineer in chief was adopted, subject to loan funds being available."

Continuing his report, Cr. Weaver said: "It is anticipated that construction in this new area could start in the early half of 1973. This is good news for the ratepayers, who have been waiting patiently for so long.

"I will continue in my efforts to obtain allocation of funds as necessary to complete the sewerage of the municipality, and will keep both council and ratepayers informed with the latest progress reports as they come to hand," he said.

Hello Girls—

I think we are all used to the colorful bright lipsticks and nail polishes by now.

Revlon have just given us the hottest colors I've seen for a long time, now.

You will just love these reds. Bold, bright, fired-up-reds for lips and nails. The 'Red Hots' of '72' with names like Red Hot Red, Blue Flame Red, and Fireball Red — you just couldn't help but look warm and cheery, colored up by Revlon.

Mary Quant is caring about you and your skin. What with daily use of eye makeup, cleaning off with eye-cleansers, false lashes being applied regularly. Today's eyes get the full makeup treatment, but what about tomorrow?

Mary Quant is always looking ahead for us thinking of tomorrow, and our delicate eyes and surrounding areas need tender care. The skin around our eyes is so fine and lines and bruises so easily it needs extra care.

Now you need not worry, with just a brush and a stroke you can condition your lashes and add moisture around your eyes. Lash conditioner brushes on like a mascara, replacing what daily wear and tear of color mascara and lash adhesive take out. Rich protein formula stops lashes becoming dry and brittle helps lashes to stay long and lush.

With your Eye Care Stick, just like a lipstick, helps keep the fine textured skin around the eye area soft and supple.

Special light, oily formula sinks rapidly into the skin, helping plump out wrinkles and prevent others forming.

Two simple, quick methods of improving and keeping a soft, beautiful eye.

Merry Widow at Altona High

Students of Altona High School are presenting The Merry Widow by Franz Lehár, at Altona Civic Centre on August 10, 11, 12, 14 and 16.

This gay, romantic light opera set in Paris in the early 1900s.

A highlight of this show is the beautiful singing of the well-known "Villia."

After five months of preparation, the cast is now ready to face the public.

The many staff, students and parents who work behind the scenes are making last-minute adjustments to costumes and scenery and the singers are very nearly perfect.

The principal players are all students of the school, many of whom are well-known for their parts in previous productions.

Julie Finlay and Gail Poole, who have had leading roles for a number of years will be appearing together.

Robert Rennie and Wayne Oaks stars of earlier productions, have leading roles and Cecil Martin will have another of his well-known comedy roles.

There have been a number of promotions from the chorus.

Graeme Mayberry, Greg Clark, Christine Foley and Margaret Wilson will this year have principal roles for the first time.

The school's annual operatic production is a vitally important part of the education process at Altona High.

Almost the whole of the student and staff body is involved at some time in some way.

The sense of co-operation between students, staff and parents which is fostered by the production benefits the school as a whole.

The most unlikely students are often those who gain most from the sense of participation in a worthwhile and enjoyable activity.

The production team, Mr. Paul Borg, Mrs. Helen Tregear and Mr. Michael "Jinna" Downes, have been working together on Altona High operettas for seven years, and their experience is of great value in bringing a most enjoyable entertainment to the audience.

If you would like to see The Merry Widow tickets may be booked by contacting Mr. John Eichard at 398 1301.

The cost is $1 for adults and 50 cents for children and students.

Tickets will also be available at the hall before each performance.

NEW BLOOD WANTED

The Australian Red Cross Society urgently appeals for 10,000 new blood donors.

The use of blood has increased in recent years because of the general increase in population, in surgery and a greater use of blood products which are life saving in such diseases as haemophilia.

Despite the loyalty of 50,000 blood donors, the Society, has a recurring shortage of blood.

Any healthy person between the ages of 18 and 65, whose weight is over seven-and-a-half stone can give blood.

The actual blood donation takes only between five and 10 minutes.

The Red Cross mobile unit will be visiting the Williamstown Town Hall on Monday, August 7, between 1.30 p.m. and 7 p.m.

VACC hits at "gimmick" promotions

For some time, the V.A.C.C. has been concerned at the sharp increase in the number of promotions at service stations which are not specifically related to the launching of a new site.

Members of the Service Station Division of the Chamber feel they should not be selling records, stationery, gift lines, clothing and other items.

Mr. Athol Kelly, executive vice-president of the VACC, said the Chamber had become increasingly concerned following an intensified effort by a number of oil companies to induce motorists to support a particular brand of petrol in return for the opportunity of buying an article at a discounted price.

Mr. Kelly said that the executive of the service station division of the VACC had passed a resolution opposing the sale of items not directly associated with the retail motor industry.

The division felt that motorists should not be induced to buy stationery and other non-motor items when they are buying petrol and accessories.

Mr. Kelly said that record bars, drapers, stationers, etc. had an equal right to a decent living. VACC members did not want to withdraw that right because an oil company wished to "push" a particular promotion.

The best advice on clothing, stationery and records could be obtained only by specialists in these areas at an establishment offering a reasonable choice of material.

Service station proprietors did not want to hold themselves out as experts in such fields.

Mr. Kelly said the Chamber was becoming inundated with requests for retail motor industry involvement with a particular charitable project or fund raising ventures.

However, the legal and physical problems were so great that the VACC was forced to recommend against members taking part in a specific charitable campaign.

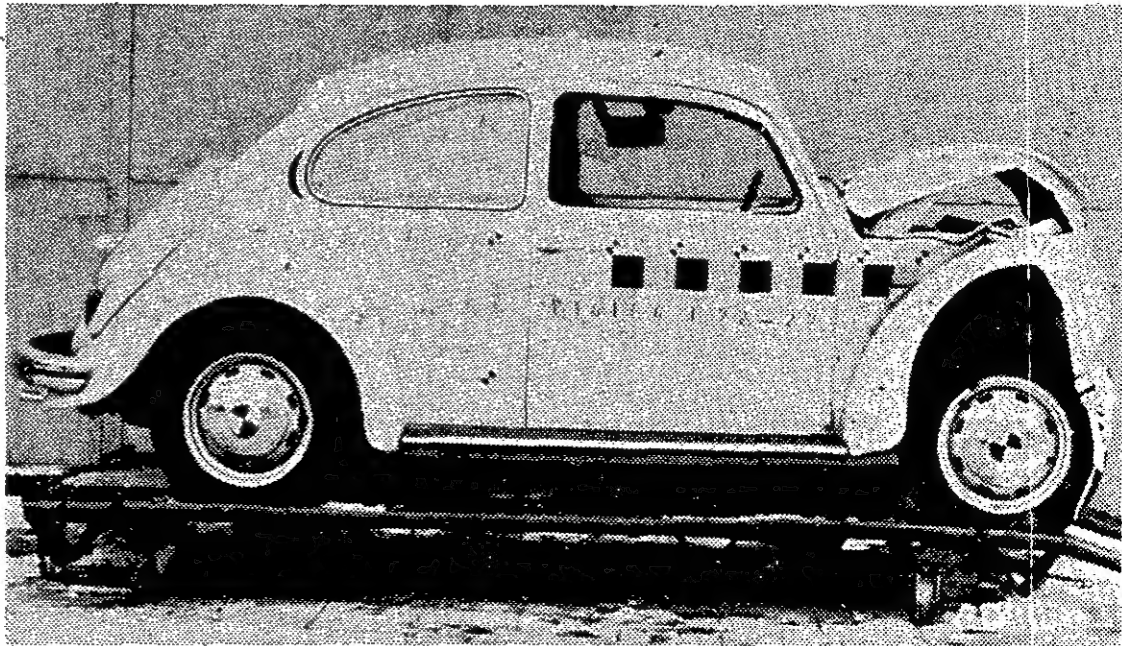

It was the firm view of the Chamber that VACC members be able to make their own decision on whether they should support a particular charity. Such a decision could not be transferred to other organisations who may disagree with the VACC.

Mr. Kelly said it needed to be remembered that many service station lessees resented oil companies forcing them into a position where they were obliged to sell merchandise not specifically related to motoring activities.

"Gimmick" promotions did not have VACC endorsement as inevitably other oil companies produced a rival promotion which did little to assist the image of the service station proprietor. What was needed was a good product and good service at a reasonable price, not inducements to buy other items at supposedly bargain prices, he said.

There aren't many reporting assignments where the journalist leaves his overcoat on.

And where his hands become so cold he can hardly write.

But that's the lot of the law courts reporters of the western suburbs, with one exception, Sunshine.

The Sunshine Court, according to a plaque in the foyer, was opened by Sir Arthur Rylah, in 1959.

It's a modern, brick building with comfortable seats and adequate heating facilities in both the first and second divisions.

The other four western suburbs courts were built in the days when courts were considered places of punishment, not places of arbitration or for the settling of disputes.

They are cold, bleak, high-ceilinged buildings with little — or in one case — no heating.

By far the worst is Moonee Ponds.

It is about 45 ft. x 30 ft., with the ceiling about 15 ft. from the bare boards that make up the floor.

And it is completely devoid of heating in any shape or form, at least for the public, the police and the legal fraternity.

A small, electric radiator is placed near the magistrate's chair.

The second division is a much smaller room and is also unheated.

In the staff's office area there is provision for a wood fire, but no wood is provided.

Domestic type electric radiators are used for staff comfort... and I've got a sneaking suspicion they were paid for by members of the clerk of court's staff, and the clerk.

In Footscray, everyone gets a bit better deal.

The first division — a room slightly bigger than its counterpart at Moonee Ponds — is heated by three gas heating units situated about 15 ft. above the floor boards.

There's sometimes a radiator at the magistrate's Bench.

The second division, a room about 15 ft. by 25 ft., has one gas-powered ceiling heater.

But both rooms are still bloody cold in the autumn and... shudder... winter.

People attending Williamstown Court are getting a really raw deal, and look like having to put up with it for a long time yet.

"Raw" is the best description that could be given to the temperature.

The courthouse was burnt down last year and since then, courts have used the Mechanics' Institute as their venue.

It's an old, draughty building and, like Moonee Ponds, has no heating.

Thoughtful members of the clerk of court's staff provided the circuit magistrate, Mr. H. Boarder, with an electric radiator.

But it was still so cold that last week Mr. Boarder left his overcoat on throughout the hearings.

And there's no sign of relief for a long time yet.

The Law Department's works and planning officer, Mr. R. I. King, said when asked about plans for warmer justice in Williamstown that things were under way.

Outline plans had been approved for a new courthouse and the public Works Department was drawing up detailed plans and specifications.

His department had applied for funds for the new courthouse this financial year, but had not yet been notified if the money would be available.

If it was, tenders would be called this financial year, Mr. King said.

So the judiciary, police and legal fraternities can look forward to freezing winters and roasting summers at Williamstown for some time yet.

So, unfortunately, can the defendants and witnesses.

And the Press. "Living" conditions at Williamstown Court are a little better.

The first division room has a couple of electric strip heaters on the wall and the second division and clerk of courts offices have a strip heater each.

But they are hopelessly inadequate in all three sections.

The Fleming's court-house isn't exactly a place of beauty, either, even though it is the closest court to the police district headquarters for the western suburbs.

A few months back part of the ceiling fell in and plaster started falling from the walls.

Men from the Public Works Department came to the rescue — or part way to the rescue.

The ceiling was put back and the holes left by the fallen plaster refilled.

But the new, white plaster is still clearly seen running down the dingy green walls.

The atmosphere, as a whole, is that maybe one day part of the ceiling will fall on the public gallery.

Or perhaps, may be, even on the magistrate.

Overall — and I again say with the exception of Sunshine — the situation is pretty grim.

And it's not confined to the western suburbs. It's a State-wide position. Some country court-houses are an absolute disgrace to Victoria.

Like education and many other public services, the administration of the law is taking place in an age of the past.

People should realise that courts are not places of punishment; but are places where a decision on whether or not punishment is deserved are decided.

They are not, as many people still think, police courts and the title of Police Magistrate was replaced by that of Stipendiary Magistrate in the age of aspidochelons in the hall.

The uncomfortable, freezing conditions in which the law is administered do nothing to help people realise this.

THE LIONS ROAR

The Altona Lions Club was represented at the seminar 'Adult Care in the Community' at Altona Methodist Church.

Altona Lions' vice-president, Mr. Ron Tribe, was elected to represent the club on a committee formed to investigate the needs of our elderly folk.

When does a politician not talk politics?

When he is guest speaker at a Lions Club meeting.

Such was the case when Dr. Jim Cairns accepted the invitation of programme organiser, Mr. Larry Noye, on Wednesday.

Dr. Cairns spoke of his recent overseas trip in protest of the French nuclear tests. The meeting was well attended by many guests from the Laverton district.

It's paper drive time again on Sunday. Members are reminded to attend, as "many hands make light work" and the club could do with a few more trailers.

Donors would help a lot by leaving their papers in tied bundles at the front gate.

Lion president, Mr. Charlie Trickey and Lions Lady, Pat, escorted American exchange student, Miss Debbie Layton to the recent Altona Mayoral Ball.

Just a reminder of phone numbers — community service is 398 1687 and for paper collection ring 398 2746 or 398 2457.

"I TOLD YOU WE SHOULDN'T AVE TAKEN THAT BUNDLE OF GIRLY MAGAZINES!"

High school raises funds

Miss Footscray High School entrants, both senior and junior, will be introduced to the public at a family dance in the school assembly hall on August 11 at 8 p.m.

The Mothers' Club has arranged the dance and the presentation to the successful Miss Footscray High School entrants.

Proceeds go to Mothers' Club funds for such things as new sports uniforms.

Each year students at the school do a lot of work to raise funds.

They have been helping meet payments on the school assembly hall, which are about $2000 each year.

With help from the children this debt has been rapidly reduced and the hall will probably be debt-free within two years.

The students also help raise funds for school equipment for staff and students and at present the school is considering extending the shelter area at the canteen and building a drama room.

One of the Mothers' Club's fund-raising efforts, a trading table held last Friday, was a great success and the students did their bit by providing hot lunches.

A caretaker residence being built in the school grounds will be completed soon and work has started on two new classrooms.

The advisory council is still pressing for site works around the assembly hall and Commonwealth science block to be completed.

ALTONA YOUTH CLUB MARCHING GIRLS

Altona Youth Club Marching Girls held a car rally on July 30 with 31 cars.

All cars arrived safely at Gisborne for a barbecue lunch.

The rally was won by Mr. and Mrs. I. Hoyland, of West Footscray.

Mr. Reed, of Braybrook, was second.

An electric blanket was won by Mrs. Vip, of Linnett Street, Altona. It was donated by Mrs. Evans.

Adult education courses

The Council of Adult Education is now accepting enrolments for the spring term, which begins in September.

Over 160 courses are available in a wide range of subjects.

Day and evening classes have been arranged at the council's city centre and in several suburbs, including one at Laverton High School.

Following the success of earlier courses held at the school, three new classes are planned for the current term.

Mrs. Mary Sticklan will give a course in posture and poise aimed at developing better social skills and greater self-confidence.

Practical work includes exercises to improve posture, relaxation training and make-up class. Students will also learn how to plan a wardrobe within their budget.

Copies of the syllabus are available free from most suburban libraries and book shops, or direct from the council's office, 256 Flinders Street, Melbourne, phone 63 4231.

ANYONE SEEN CAROL'S PONY?

Fourteen-year-old Carol Clephane hasn't been able to sleep properly since someone stole her pony on July 24.

Carol, of Roberts Street, Kingsville, had always wanted a pony and she finally got her wish three months ago as a birthday present.

The pony, a three-year-old, buckskin, was tethered with a rope in a nearby paddock.

Carol used to rush home from Footscray Girls' High School to feed it each day. The pony cost $140 and Carol knows she won't be able to afford another for years.

So she just dreams about him and hopes for a miracle.

Nominee rejects planning

SIR. — The adoption of a Town Plan by council on Monday, without any prior display or consultation with the citizens of Williamstown, is a "slap in the face" for us all.

If councillors were so worried about developers moving in before citizens were aware of the zoning in the plan, then flat development could have been frozen while the plans were on display.

There is no doubt that Williamstown has needed a definite plan for many years, which should have been prepared long before this. The sooner a plan is operative; the better, but it should be one to which we have all contributed.

As it now stands, we are bound by a plan developed by four councillors on a subcommittee, and discussed by all councillors for less than four hours!

The subcommittee did not consult any qualified town-planning consultants, and did not canvass opinions of ratepayers.

This is grossly inadequate for the preparation of a document which will affect each and every one of us for the rest of our lives, and leaves me with grave doubts about the decision-making ability of council, which apparently regards itself as the font of all wisdom and knowledge.

Proper action by council would have avoided the need for the rigmarole of lodging formal objections, as we now must do since the plan is approved for action by the Board of Works.

I am seriously concerned for the future of Williamstown, in which I chose to live 11 years ago because of its very special charm and all the weekend visits I made here as a youngster.

I cannot sit idly by while, on one hand, council arrogantly disregards the residents on such important issues as a town plan, yet on the other hand openly displays a defeatist attitude towards the outside pressures being exerted upon us by State Government, Housing Commission and big business. We can and must control our destiny. I fear that present trends, if not arrested, will turn us into an overcrowded industrial ghetto.

I therefore announce my intention to stand as a candidate in the next council elections.

Yours &c. NEVILLE MASHFORD.

HMAS Flinders is launched

HMAS Flinders, the Navy's new hydrographic survey ship, was launched last Saturday at the Williamstown Dockyard.

The ceremony was performed by Mrs. Ruth Mackay, wife of the Minister for the Navy, Dr. Malcolm Mackay.

Lieutenant Commander Ian S. Pullar, will be the first commanding officer. At present he is posted to the RAN Hydrographic Office in Sydney.

After sea trials, scheduled for the first quarter of 1973, Flinders will replace the survey ship, HMAS Paluma, and her first tasks will be in the Barrier Reef area and waters around Papua-New Guinea.

Flinders will be fitted with various electronic aids to assist her survey mission and will be permanently fitted with distance-measuring equipment, deep echo and normal echo depth sounders, radar and sonar.

She will also have satellite navigating equipment for special duties, and be fitted to work with helicopters, although she will not carry one herself.

The vast areas to be surveyed by the RAN Hydrographic Service include about 6500 miles of coastline and a continental shelf that extends on average 30 miles out from land.

About one-third of Australia's area of responsibility has been charted by modern survey methods, while the remaining parts are still based on old surveys.

With present resources it could take up to 25 years before up-to-date accurate charts can be produced.

Meeting on the power station

The Williamstown Conservation and Planning Society has called a public meeting at the Town Hall on Sunday, August 13, at 2.30 p.m.

The meeting will discuss ways of preventing the proposed Newport Power Station being built.

The society's publicity officer, Mrs. Barbara Anderson, told our reporter the new station could pollute an area of up to 500 square miles under adverse weather conditions.

She said the State Electricity Commission was also considering installing atomic power stations around Port Phillip within 20 years.

It was imperative that residents, especially those who lived within 12 miles of the power station, realised the menace this would mean to their health and property.

Mrs. Anderson said the meeting would adjourn to Dugman Reserve opposite the site of the power station and the society hoped many people would join in the procession there.

Willi scrambles in

After scoring six runs in their first two innings, Williamstown fell into a hole and were lucky to win.

During their last time at bat, Town needed to score to win.

P. Bowyer walked, was hit to second by Treadwell, bunted to third by Harris, and things looked rosy for Town. Horsborough missed and Bowyer was out at the home plate.

That's when the pressure began to tell on the pitcher, who was well on top in previous innings.

G. Parnaby walked and that was the end of the ball game.

Final score: Williamstown 7 defeated Alphington 6.

Safe hits: Johnson, P. Bowyer, Treadwell, Harris and Horsborough. Best player: Pedretti.

Long hitting was a feature of the second game with four home runs hit. Alphington had no answer to Town's long hitting and great pitching from Rod Halley, who finished the game with 14 strike-outs.

Safe hits: G. Massey 2, Wendt, Collins, Baker, Parker (home runs), Flower.

Best players: Halley, Baker and Wendt.

The thirds were a little unlucky to lose their game and went down by one run. Town had a complete reversal of form with the bat, scoring only one safe hit coming from a home run from A. Kinnaird.

Final score: Alphington 8 d. Williamstown 7.

The under 17 and 15 sides failed to make the finals this year, however the Pee-Wees finished in third position.

In the semi-final they defeated Footscray 16-9.

Safe hits: E. Ladner 2, D. Kelly, W. Marr, M. Ford 2, M. Busbridge, S. Harris, L. Densley (home run).

The Pee-Wees now meet Sunshine in the preliminary final on Saturday at Barclay Reserve, Sunshine, at 9.30.

The annual wind up and presentation night for all junior teams will be held on Saturday, August 12, at Sunshine Baseball Club rooms at 8 p.m., sharp.

JUMBLE SALE

The annual Red Cross jumble sale will be held at Williamstown Town Hall on Friday, August 4 from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. There will be clothes, a remnant stall, white elephant stall and miscellaneous goods.

CITY WINS 'HOME' TEAMS CLASH

Altona City had a comfortable win over Central Altona, when the two "home" football teams clashed at Grant Reserve on Saturday.

Feature of the opening was the blistering pace, with Centrals applying the pressure.

Play was fierce and there were several strong physical clashes.

Central kept the game right up to the Vikings. They contested each move and many times smothered City's play-on system.

The half-time interval saw Centrals in the lead — something which they could be well satisfied.

It made them the first team to head City — undefeated leaders — this season.

But in the second half, City seemed to wrap up the game.

Their teamwork clicked back into place and they streaked away to a long lead.

Centrals refused to give up and fought back hard, generally shirking the issue and never all matching the Vikings in all departments.

FITTER, BALANCED

In the final analysis, City's proved the fitter, and better-balanced team and this gave them a win by four goals.

Gordon Wilson roved tirelessly all day, winning kicks by approaching the game fearlessly and delivering the ball with amazing accuracy.

Geoff Ewen made full use of his many opportunities, creating effective drive around the ground and using his strength to the greatest advantage.

Marty Crump bobbed up all over the ground — as usual — winning countless kicks and generally playing havoc with the opposition, while Vic Pateras was active when on the back-pocket. This player goes on week after week, never putting a foot out of place.

ALTONA CITY . . . 15.16—106
CENTRAL ALTONA . 12.10— 82

He is a "must" in this position for the combination to continue its success.

Goals: R. Schwabe 4; S. Chatfield 2; I. Hardman, V. Pateras, P. Iiter, G. Ewen, M. Tisdale, G. Wilson, J. Rosenbloom, M. Crump, G. Bregnan.

FIRST SEMI TO UNDER 18 SIDE

Altona City's under 18 side had a comfortable win over an improved West Newport combination, in the first semi-final, at Newport on Sunday.

In the early stages West Newport took the game right up to City, matching them all over the ground and generally playing well.

Altona's big men, with the exception of under-18 player Glen Knight, were having an indifferent day.

They were not giving their team enough drive from the centre bounce and were not marking the ball around the ground.

The "heavies" were noticeably absent in their physical activities and it was left to the Vikings' brilliant mid-field brigade to carry the brunt of the hard work.

The game was of good general standard and featured brilliant passages of play from both sides.

Jack O'Connor displayed elusiveness and purpose in a top-notch performance, creating the loose man and marking brilliantly against taller

ALTONA CITY . . . 18.20—128
WEST NEWPORT . 11.10— 76

John Hampton was unbelievable. His blistering pace and mind-bending dashes had supporters on their feet.

Capping this off with near-perfect disposal, he played a great captain's game.

Mike Starcevic was the third member of the trio of brilliant little men, applying courage and endeavor at its best.

He played fearlessly for the full 100 minutes.

Under-16 players Peter Lidenhall was specially impressive at centre half-forward. His brilliant high marking and creative hand-ball started many attacks.

The two other under-16 players, Glen Knight and Andrew Donnelly, were a great boon to the team as a whole, contributing effectively throughout the day.

Alan Willett was very solid and never gave up trying.

Best players, selected by four independent observers and based on any part of five points to the best five players were:

J. Hampton, 20 pts.; J. O'Connor, 17; P. Mildenhall, 12; M. Starcevic, 12; G. Knight, 5; A. Donnelly, 3; A. Willett, 2.

Goals: J. Hampton 5, M. Starcevic 3; A. Donnelly, K. Churchill, W. Backhouse 2; P. Mildenhall, A. Willett, N. Henry.

SUNSHINE HEIGHTS 12.15—87
ALTONA CITY . . . 10.14—74

great number of faint-hearts in City's side.

It was something not seen in Altona City sides in any bracket for many years.

Perhaps some of the blame could be passed to the Sunshine Heights ground, which is merely a school ground with a surface like a dried-out mill pond.

BUFFETING

The small ground enabled Sunshine to buffet Altona physically and keep them under pressure at all times.

This smothered Altona's play-on tactics and they found they had to fight it out man for man.

The strain of this forced them to crack and eventually go down by 13 points.

Nothing must be taken from Sunshine Heights, however.

This team has shown unbelievable improvement since the start of the season.

It now looks likely they will meet the Vikings in the second semi-final and on Saturday's performance, this should be a real crowd-pleaser.

Best: K. Flett, J. Male, S. Grainger, W. Deveraux, A. Molloy, Morrie Tisdale.

Goals: Galaz, Berry, Flett, Hogan 2; Deveraux, Grainger.

Results of the second Castle-maine held last Saturday are as follows: E. Cerin, 1467 ypm, 1; R. Sagers, 1489 ypm, 2; T. Williams, 1440 ypm, 3.

Pressure packed WSFL round

Altona City, Western Suburban Football League leaders, and third ranked Central Altona, fought out a pressure packed game at the weekend.

Neither side allowed an inch, but City finally wore their smaller opponents down and ran out winners by the convincing tally of 24 points.

Other winners were Newport, W'town, Meths, Newport Meths and Sth. Kingsville.

CENTRALS A SHOCK TO CITY

Centrals continued with their recent good form and gave unbeaten Altona City a good run for their money, at Grant Reserve, last Saturday.

After putting up a game battle, Centrals finally went under by 24 points.

City jumped Centrals at the first bounce and had three goals on the board before Centrals scored. Mark Ivory, roving well, picked up Centrals' first goal and Denis Robinson, steady in front of goal, followed with another.

The lead see-sawed, with City six points up at quarter time.

Centrals led in the race for the ball, with Jeff Loft dominating in the roving division.

He was being well backed up by Jim Cargill, as Centrals forged to the lead. Mick Kigan was steady in defence, along with Bill Kennedy on the half-back flank.

Centrals four point advantage at half-time was quickly whittled away by City in the third term.

Centrals just could not crack the tight City defence. City, on the other hand, were beginning to hit their straps and put on five goals. This virtually gave them a winning break.

However, Centrals' fighting spirit came to the fore as they edged closer.

Denis Robinson notched his third goal, which put Centrals within two goals City were under pressure when a 'blue' started late in the quarter. But they settled down quickly and put the sealing goals on the game.

Goal: D. Robinson 3, M. Lawrin, A. Deans, M. Ivory 2, E. Jenson, M. Sayers, J. Loft.

D DIVISION

Centrals had an easy win over Laverton. Final scores were:

CENTRALS 17.11 (113)
LAVERTON 3.3 (21).

Chris Carroll took many fine marks in the back pocket and showed that he is a future senior player.

He was well backed up by Ron Patterson, who also marked well and gave Centrals an attacking half back line.

Bob Delaney did well in the centre until injured and Laurie Cooke put in a splendid team game, with some 'excellent' handball.

Goals: E. Jenson, A. Deans 3; K. Gilchrist, M. Sayers, B. Delaney 2; L. Cook, B. Medding, I. Saxton, A. Evans.
